Question: Under what circumstance can a ball be thrown out of a bunker?

Response: There are no circumstances in which a ball can be thrown out of a bunker.

Question: Why are we assessed points when we cancel in advance of our tee time?

Response: If you contact the pro shop and cancel your round in advance of your tee time, you should not be assessed points if the reason is related to illness or weather conditions. If points were assessed, it was done in error most likely by new staff.

Question: Please clarify the rules regarding hitting a provisional ball.

Response: If you believe your ball went out of bounds, you can hit a provisional ball. After you hit that ball, you will be lying 3. That is the same as if you take your ball from out of bounds and put it on the fairway (you will be lying 3).
